

Create a bot in which you have to enter name of the student and his/her marks in three marks and display complete information of student in message box.

First of all we go to sequence and go to add and put the information there again assign set the variables with the help of control + k and but marks in integer datatype.

Then we also write message box which tells us about marks with the help of testing.

